An Explanation.

We have been greatly delayed for the past three weeks in our work on account of continuous trouble with our newspaper press. This together with the fact that we have had some loss of time on the part of our force from sickness has necessitated our leaving out some matter this week. Fortunately we have about succeeded in getting all our ads changed and that makes a tempting feast for our readers.

"Tables Turned."

A play called the "Tables Turned" will be given by the pupils of Mt. Zion on Thursday night, December 20th. The play is for the most part a musical entertainment. Instead of Santa Claus visiting the children, as he did in King Winter last year, the young people give Santa a present. The slumber-land scene from King Winter will be given again. The pupils are working hard and we hope that a good crowd will turn out. The admission and characters will be announced later.

Let every member and every person interested in having a library in Winnsboro lend a helping hand to this worthy object by coming out.
